

If you have your heart set on a destination wedding, you don't have to go long-haul to find the venue of your dreams. From beach-side nuptials in Italy to the Swiss chapel chosen by Audrey Hepburn for her 1954 wedding to Mel Ferrer, say 'I do' in one of the best European wedding venues.

Erosantorini: Santorini, Greece

This private two-acre estate has beautifully landscaped grounds plus a charming open-air chapel surrounded by vines and set on a picturesque hill, the perfect place to exchange vows. If you're looking for the most beautiful Santorini wedding venue – this is it. The space can easily accommodate 350 for seated dining, or up to 800 for cocktails, dancing and live music at the wedding of the year.

by Country & Town House