

Enjoy the internationally known, both for its nutritional value and taste, Greek gastronomy and the well-known Greek hospitality in Shanghai town.

The authentic Milos Greek restaurant in No.1 Yueyang road organised a successful event officially presenting its relaunch with a new fresh menu combining traditional Greek recipes and contemporary inspired twists.

The renovated Milos restaurant has a brand new menu focusing on amazing Greek style seafood and recipes based on fresh ingredients, herbs and Greek extra virgin olive oil. The familiar blue and white decor may just entice you to unleash your inner “opa” and certainly offer a feeling of the Aegean sea and Cycladic complex of Greek islands nourishing the sea breeze and sunshine.

During the media event on Thursday night 7th of April, the Greek Consul, Mr. Vassilis Xiros highly honoured us with his presence and speech as well as representatives from all the companies of Hellas Group that attended the event from all over the world.

Chairman and CEO of Hellas Group, Mr. Pavlos Kontomichalos gave a warm welcome and a thorough presentation of all companies' activities and stated regarding Milos restaurant his pride to have a well known Greek executive chef and his team handling exclusively the menu using the best ingredients and offering to all our guests that for us are considered friends a one off experience.

Milos was first established in Shanghai in 2006. Over the years, Milos has become a true favorite among both Chinese and westerners living in Shanghai. Currently there are 2 restaurants in town, the Milos in No.1 Yuyang road with great focus and orientation in seafood tastes and Milos restaurant in No. 3338 Hongmei road based on grill and meat recipes.

In short, Hellas Group has activities focusing on Greek Hospitality, Gastronomy and Culture with the aim to bring the best of Greece to the world. Specifically the following companies represent Hellas Group:
